

CHARLES UNIVERSITY

PROCEDURE FOR INTERRUPTIONS OF STUDY

Faculty of Pharmacy in Hradec Kralove

Art. 1

Conditions, period, the termination procedure, and the procedure for deciding on interruptions of study are regulated by the Study and Examination Regulations of Charles University, dated on December 14, 2016 (the "Study and Examination Regulations").

Art. 2

- 1) Interruptions of study in the first section of study are allowed only for very serious reasons, especially health reasons.
- 2) Interruptions of study may be permitted repeatedly, but the interruption of one section of study is allowed only once. Exceptions are granted only in cases specified in Art. 6 paragraph 2 of the Study and Examination Regulations.
- 3) Interruptions of study at a time when there are reasons for termination of studies, esp. for the reason of failure to fulfill study requirements, cannot be authorized.
- 4) Interruptions of study are usually terminated at the beginning of the following semester.
- 5) A student who has met the conditions for taking the state final examination, but did not meet the deadline approved by the dean for, may interrupt the study to date, which allows him to register for the exam in the following term via the study information system.

Art. 3

- 1) These rules were approved by the dean's committee on April 3, 2017.
- 2) These rules come into force on the first day of the academic year 2017/2018.

Assoc. Prof. PharmDr. Tomáš Šimůnek, Ph.D.
Dean of the Faculty

Art. 6 of the Study and Examination Regulations.

Art. 6, paragraph 1, second sentence of the Study and Examination Regulations.

Art. 6, paragraph 1, first sentence of the Study and Examination Regulations.

Besides where there are reasons for termination of the study, the Dean may interrupt the student's study at the student's request if

a) the student requests permission for interruption of their studies on the grounds of pregnancy, childbirth or parenting, or in connection with the takeover of a child in foster care based on a decision of the competent authority under the Civil Code or the laws governing state social support to the length of time that a maternity or parental leave would last,

b) the student requests permission for interruption of their studies due to participation in sports representing the Czech Republic or due to the necessary preparations for the sporting event, and the request shall be submitted including the confirmation of this fact issued by a sports organization representing the sport in the Czech Republic,

c) the student requests permission for interruption of their studies due to serious health issues,

...

Art. 6 paragraph 8 of the Study and Examination Regulations.