Dean's Directive No. 13/2025

Doctoral Study Income

Article 1

In relation to Section 91a (3) and (7) of Act No. 111/1998 Sb., to regulate higher education institutions and to change and amend other laws (Higher Education Act), as amended by Act No. 52/2025 Sb., effective as of 1 September 2025, after consideration by the Dean's Board on 22 September 2025, the present directive stipulates the following in relation to the doctoral study income and the doctoral bursary at the Faculty of Pharmacy of CU in Hradec Králové:

1. In the 2025/2026 academic year, the minimum amount of the doctoral study income of students of doctoral programmes of study enrolled before 1 October 2025 is CZK 21,000 per month.

2. There is no minimum amount of the doctoral bursary.

3. With respect to the minimum amount of the doctoral study income under paragraph 1, supervisors of students of doctoral programmes of study are responsible for ensuring the sources of financing for the income beyond the scope of the financial sources provided by the Faculty. Supervisors are also responsible for the timely notification of the Research Department of the Dean's Office of the structure of the doctoral study income and of the doctoral student's employer, if any, which provides income to the student in relation to the creation of the student's dissertation.

4. Bursaries or scholarships funded from GA CU projects are paid as follows:
   a) Preferably in the form of a regular monthly doctoral bursary;
   b) In the form of a scholarship for research, development, and innovation activities in one to three lump-sum payments subject to the supervisor's approval.

Article 2

1. Dean's Directive No. 3/2024, Amount of Doctoral Bursary, is hereby repealed.

2. The present directive comes into force on the date of execution and becomes effective on the date of publication.

Hradec Králové, 22 September 2025

doc. PharmDr. Jaroslav Roh, Ph.D.

Dean of the Faculty
